

100 West Carroll Library
Georgia College
Milledgeville, Georgia

The Colonnade

"It's Your Right To Know - It's Our Duty To Inform"

VOLUME 58 Issue 16

GEORGIA COLLEGE, MILLEDGEVILLE, GEORGIA

April 28, 1975

Miss Homecoming 1975 Talented, Lovely, Carolyn Reid Crowned

On April 19, 1975, during a semi-formal dance held in the Maxwell College Union, the lovely, talented Miss Carolyn Reid was crowned Miss Homecoming 1975. Miss Reid, a twenty year old senior, is majoring in accounting. She is the daughter of Reverend and Mrs. J.W. Reid of Eatonton and a graduate of Putnam County High School.

Miss Reid came to Georgia College in 1972. Immediately, she began to get involved. She joined the Black Student Alliance, in which she has served a Corresponding Secretary and now holds the position as Business Manager. Miss Reid is also an appointed member of the College Government Association and serves on the Faculty Committee.

As for other extracurricular activities Miss Reid says she enjoys sports and getting involved with people. She has astoundingly proved this by being a member of the Intercollegiate Basketball Team, as well as playing Intramural basketball, softball, and volleyball. She was also the coach of an intramural basketball team which was sponsored by the Drummers Club. Miss Reid states that she is very proud of her team and its victories.

Miss Reid plans to graduate after Fall Quarter 1975 and at which time she plans to go to work for the Internal Revenue Service or some Accounting firm for one year. In Fall of 1976 Miss Reid plans to attend Georgia State University in Atlanta in order to obtain her Master of Science Degree in Accounting, but most of all her desires extend toward becoming a Certified Public Accountant.

Miss Reid, a Resident Assistant would like to thank the girls on her floor for encouraging her to run. She would also like to send a sincere "thanks" to Mr. Clarence Williams from Swainsboro, Georgia, for being her escort. Mostly she would like to send a deep and respectful "thanks" to her parents to whom she contributes her success.

Miss Reid would like to offer these words of advice to any girl who wishes to become

Miss Homecoming: "Get Involved. Get to know people on campus. Study hard and love the people on campus with dedication."

Evans To Be A First

The first full-year basketball scholarship ever to be awarded by Georgia College to a woman has gone to Karye Evans of Milledgeville, according to an announcement made this week by Floyd Anderson, chairman of the department of health, physical education, and recreation at GC.

Miss Evans, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. Howard Evans of Meriweather Circle, is currently a senior at cross-town Georgia Military College.

During her four years at GMC, the six-foot rover averaged 20 points and 16 rebounds per game and was outstanding also on defense. Her game high at GMC was 42 points.

Karye was sought by a number of colleges and universities, according to Laura Golden, women's basketball coach at the college, who notes that the future GC freshman can play either post or forward.

"Karye can go both right and left-handed," says Miss Golden, "and can shoot as well from the outside as she can from the inside."

"GC is very fortunate to get her and I'm sure she will be a definite asset to the team."

Miss Golden also stated that Karye is a good assist player, one who can move out when she is double-teamed and feed the ball effectively to a team mate.

"I don't think that she has reached her maximum ability yet," the GC coach feels, "and I believe that she has a tremendous amount of potential as yet untapped."

Miss Golden notes also that Karye is "very quick on the floor and an excellent ballhandler." Frequently in her four years at GMC, she was the one to bring the ball up the floor, an unusual situation for a very tall player who normally gets up under the boards as quick as possible.

Karye attended Norman Carter's basketball camp for four years and was named an all-star last year at the camp.

At GMC, Karye is a member of the National Honor Society and on the tennis team. Hopefully she will be able to aid the women's tennis program at GC should she elect to try out for the team, says the GC basketball mentor.

Maxwell-Walston Competition Winners

Something new has been added to the Georgia College 1974-75 Maxwell-Walston Writing Competition, in which 95 contestants submitted a total of 232 entries.

In the high school category for juniors and seniors, the first place winner of a $50 cash prize is Marlin Sandlin of Berlin, a senior at Moultrie Senior High, for his poem "Sonnet I."

Jeffrey Lee Dean of Macon, a 12th grader at Southwest High, Willingham B, and Stephen Graham of Albany, a Dougherty High senior, tied for the second place prize of $25. Dean's entry was a short story entitled "Love, Liberty and Democracy." Graham won his honor for a short fiction piece, "Blowing Blues."

Tina Gwen Stanford of Milledgeville, a senior at Baldwin County High and part-time GC student, captured third place and an award of $10 for her poem "Autumn."

David Dooley of Milledgeville walked away with a first place prize ($50) in the Georgia College student category. His winning entry was a short story, "A Vacation Snapshot." Another Milledgeville resident, Ashley Ursrey, won second place ($25) for his essay "Then." Third place ($10) went to Edward J. Peterson of Macon, who entered a short story "A.D."

"Watching Birds in Milledgeville," a poem, earned David Payne of Milledgeville a first place prize ($50) in the alumni category. Two Milledgeville residents won second ($25) and third ($10) places, Sandra W. Holsenbeck for a short story, "A Cure for Xenophobia: A Spiritual Journey," and Carolyn E. Larson, for her short, short fiction, "Bringing Lula Home."

Because the quality of many entries warranted additional recognition, the competition judges gave honorable mentions to the following:

High School juniors and seniors: Tina

Gwen Stanford, for "Reflections"; Karen Dunbar of Smyrna, a F.T. Willis High School senior, for "A Maiden, Alone, on the Beach; Vanessa Simmons, a senior at Jefferson High in Jefferson, for "The Boardwalk"; and Jane Berkner of Atlanta, a student at North Clayton Senior

Continued On Page 4

People To People On GC Campus

A new organization, People to People, has been formed on this campus. This organization consists of interested faculty and students whose main purpose is to promote better relationships between faculty and students. The week of April 28-May 2 has been designated as "Student-Faculty Week." During this week students will be inviting faculty members to accompany them to lunch, dutch treat, a faculty student softball game is planned; and it is hoped that faculty members will set aside a part of one class period to permit students to question them on such things as their hobbies, interests, educational background, etc.

Homecoming Parade Of Events

MISS HOMECOMING 1974 and 5 finalist lead parade.

Miss Georgia College and court add beauty to the parade.

No parade's complete without horses.

Distinguished guest enjoy parade.

Buddy Warren and his "Bone Crusher."

President's Honor Guard performed for GC.

Pikes are tuned up.

Kappa Sig does the 'gator walk.

Phi Del's "GC through the ages."

Other Homecoming Activities

Concert starring Nitty Gritty Dirt Band.

Cottonwood plays at informal dance.

Outdoor barbeque on Friday.

GC Stage Band entertains at barbeque.

Georgia College students participate in field day events.

Participants in GC's First Annual Song Fest.

CGA President, Cheryl Selph, speaks at Homecoming Dance.

Phi Mu Walk-A-Thon For Project Hope

The second annual walk-a-thon for project HOPE sponsored by Phi Mu will be this Saturday, April 26th. All people walking will meet at Russell Auditorium bright and early at 8:15 that morning.

The walk-a-thon is expected to be a big success with all the pledges that have been made so far. A big thanks goes to all who are walking and all who have pledged. If you haven't already pledged money for the walk-a-thon, be sure to sign up before the 26th.

Marjorie Ryle gets first taste of pie.

Dear Editor

We are writing this letter in appreciation of the efforts made by those who caused the Nitty Gritty Dirt Band concert to be a success. There were those who spent over five hours helping to load and unload equipment for the band. Those who took tickets and watched the doors did an excellent job. The audience is thanked for being there and making the concert a sell-out!

We now have a concert committee composed of the following folks:

Terry Amerson, Dolly Donahue, Karl Hillard, Karen Reece, Jim Russell, Jan Smith, and Mark Smith.

These people will be helping choose the musicians coming here at G.C. in the future. We would very much like to know the student's opinion on who should appear here; and suggestions on improvements would be appreciated.

Sincerely,
Tammy Smith-Chairwoman, Concert Committee
Derek Darity Secretary of Student Activities

Staff Box

Editor and Chief
Ricky Manville

Associate Editor

Fred Mobley

Sports Editor

Mel Harris

Photographers: Lee Dasher, Larry Hazzard, Glen Grossman.

Staff: Vivian Smith, Kathy Thomas, Patty Stein, Kathy Sheppard, Suellen Griggs, Gwen Hambrick, Kathy Lankford, Kay Strowl, "Wolf".

Schedule Of Week's Activities

FRIDAY, APRIL 25--Mid-Quarter Reports; Golf-Macon Jr.-Away.

SATURDAY, APRIL 26--GRE-Chappell; Baseball-Shorter-Home.

MONDAY, APRIL 28--Student Recital, Melissa Phillips, Porter-8 p.m.; M. Tennis-Shorter-Home.

TUESDAY, APRIL 29--Golf-LaGrange-Away; M. Tennis-Augusta-Away; W. Tennis-Ga. S.-Home.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 30--Outdoor Education, Resident School, Lake Laurel.

Epworth By The Sea

During the weekend of April 4-6, twenty students journeyed down to Brunswick, Georgia for a retreat. This retreat was attended by Georgia College, University of Georgia, Georgia Tech, West Georgia College, and Young Harris.

The weekend consisted of a film festival Friday night; workshops, the beach, and a talent show Saturday; and a worship service with a speaker on Sunday. The speaker for the weekend was Bishop J.O. Bishop and workshops were conducted by various campus ministers.

After a picnic and fun in the sun on the beach Saturday, the group (about sixty students), gathered for the talent show. GC's own "Flash Thrasher" was master of ceremonies. Georgia College also presented a skit that was a take-off on prayers entitled "Hotline to Heaven". The skit, which was extremely comical, may be re-enacted at a future BSU meeting.

Even though the skit was the main part of the show, it was definitely not the high point of entertainment. The show came to a hilarious climax when Marjorie Ryle got a beautiful whipped cream pie thrown at her by Meredythe Monroe. (And you thought the retreat was all work and no play.)

Sunday morning, Bishop Smith spoke to the students again and afterwards, everyone met for a short worship service led by Sheila Winkles, Bill Barnes, and Doug and Don Thrasher.

Georgia College had the largest number of students present from any one school but next year no one would be hurt if the number doubled. Those present were: Don Thrasher, Sheila Winkles, Bill Barnes, Gwen Hambrick, Bryan Mobles, Sheila Murphey, John Davis, Ellen Simpson, Meredythe Monroe, Ricky Woods, Marjorie Ryle, J.C. Coefield, Karen Dondes, Marilyn Dean, Edgar Galbreath, Kathy Sears, Barbara Thrash, Dawson Allen, Lynn Johnson, Sharon Butterbaugh, Ed Nelson, Ann Nelson, and their three children Lee Ann, Boyce, and Laura.

Delta Zeta News—

Homecoming

Delta Zeta's theme for the homecoming parade was the Delta Zeta Turtle. The turtle is Delta Zeta's mascot.

The float was a car decorated as a turtle. Green crepe paper stuffed into chicken wire was draped over the car with an extending tail and head. The float was driven by Janice McIntosh and Martha Ann Lumpkin. Fellow Delta Zeta's walked around the float and in front of it. The float received the first place award and was awarded a blue ribbon.

Money Collected

On Saturday April 5th, the sisters and pledges of Delta Zeta Sorority collected money for Saint Jude's Children Hospital. Saint Jude's is a children's hospital for research and the treatment of cancer. The hospital is supported solely through donations. Delta Zeta would like to express their thanks to the public for their generous contributions.

Song Festival

On Wednesday April 16th, Delta Zeta participated in the First Annual Song Festival. The era that the Delta Zeta's selected was the 1920's. The first song was the Roaring Twenties, with lyrics written by Lydia Moss and Sherrie Perkins. The second song Sisters, was also written by Sherrie and Lydia.

Mrs. Carolyn Sanders, musical therapist at Central State Hospital, helped the group with dynamics and choreography. Special thanks goes to Mrs. Sanders for her time and help.

Delta Zeta would like to congratulate Alpha Delta Pi, Phi Delta Theta and Black Student Alliance for their winning performances.

Cloths Bank On The Move

The Clothes Bank for Students will move, ready or not, on Saturday, May 3, from 107 E. Hancock (above Whipple Office Supply) to 107 S. Wayne (above Mike's Snack Shack). We shall begin promptly at 9 a.m. and should be through (with enough intelligent help) before noon. We need lots of PEOPLE!! We hope to empty racks in order, keeping the sizes as they are, transport the racks, rehang the clothes on them and be ready to reopen the next week. We would surely appreciate your including an appeal for assistance on that day, stressing the necessity of helpers' being available by 9.

My sincere thanks for any help you can give us.

Cordially,
Maggie Nish

Fashions In Ebony

The Homecoming festivities were concluded by a fashion show given by The Black Student Alliance on April 20, in Russell Auditorium at 7:00. The theme of the fashion show was "Fashions In Ebony".

A spring setting was used as a background which provided the audience with a simulated environment for the upcoming summer months. Many merchants contributed to this worthwhile endeavor. The stores included Nash's, Diana's, The Union and Harrold's just to name a few.

The members of the BSA would like to thank all those who helped to make this project a success.

BSA Elects Officers

The BSA held elections for officers and the returns are as follows:

Larry Stephens-President, Butch Williams-Vice President, Lou Nelson-Secretary, Kay Stroud-Assistant Secretary, Carolyn Reid-Business Manager, Vicki Miller-Treasurer.

The BSA are in the process of making plans for next year. We are hoping that we will be able to open doors for new projects on campus. As the plans stand now next year as this one was will be prove to be a prosperous year.

ROTC
Here
At GC

College students and recent graduates are facing intense competition for a limited number of job openings. But for students who haven't completed their sophomore year, there are programs available which could prepare them to land jobs after graduation. One such is the Army ROTC Two Year Program which is designed for students who have completed two years of college. It also embraces transfer students and other college and university students who didn't enroll in Army ROTC at the beginning of their college career.

The leadership and management training these students get, coupled with the responsibilities and challenges faced during active duty, gives the Army ROTC graduate a competitive edge in getting civilian jobs.

To qualify, students must be at least 17 years old, but under 28 at the time of graduation. They must be academically, physically and morally acceptable. In addition, they must attend a six-week Basic Camp during the summer prior to entering the program. For this they are paid approximately $500, plus travel. Veterans and those students with 3 years of Junior ROTC are not required to attend this Basic Camp.

After successfully completing the Basic Camp and enrolling in the Army ROTC Advanced Course, cadets earn $100 each month for up to 20 months and attend a six-week Advanced Camp between their junior and senior years. During this camp period, the principles of leadership are put into practice and cadets are paid approximately $475, plus travel.

Army ROTC graduates normally have a two-year active duty commitment with the Army for which, As Second Lieutenants, they earn approximately $10,000 a year.

Students interested in enrolling should contact CPT Ray Lee at Georgia Military College. Phone: 453-3481, Ext. 52.

Lambda Pi Elects Officers

Sandra Hensley of Forest Park has been elected president of the Lambda Pi chapter of Delta Zeta sorority at Georgia College.

Other new officers are Jean Laseter of Milledgeville, vice-president-in-charge of membership; Sherrie Perkins of Lizella, assistant in charge of members; Janie Swanson of Sharpsburg, vice-president in charge of pledges; Susan Edwards of Tucker, corresponding secretary; Cheryl McNair of Eatonton, recording secretary; Diane Collins of McIntyre, treasurer; Cecile Hodges of Milledgeville, historian; Janice McIntosh of Chamblee, press chairman; Kathi Lindsey of Union Point, social chairman; Brenda Edmondson of Monroe, courtesy chairman; Lydia Moss of Macon, activity chairman; and Karen Mullis of Macon, scholarship chairman.

All new officers are initiated members and have maintained a 2.0 or better quarterly average.

Poetry Contest

One thousand dollars will be awarded as grand prize in the First Annual Poetry Competition sponsored by World of Poetry. Poems of all subjects and styles are eligible to win the grand prize or any of fifty other cash or merchandise awards.

According to contest director, Joseph Mellon, "We are looking for poetic talent of every kind, and expect 1975 to be a year of exciting discoveries."

In addition to a prize, each winning poem will be included in the prestigious World of Poetry Anthology. The contest will be judged by an independent panel of the Chaparral Poetry Society. Rules and official entry forms are available by writing to World of Poetry, 801 Portola Drive, Suite 211, San Francisco, California 94127. The contest closes June 30, 1975.

(Continued From Page 1)

Winners

High in College Park, for "The Savior." Georgia College students: Charles E. Watts of Jackson, for "Us, U.S."; and Steven C. Sykes of Milledgeville, for "Winterlude."

Alumni: David Payne, for "Jesse James Rode for the New York Review of Books"; Sandra W. Holsenbeck, for "Coffee and Dessert"; and Mary Gaines Stewart of Decatur, for "Right Way."